

Go On Your Way

*What's that you say?
I'd rather lose my hearing than hear I'm losing you
Was it today you said you had a message
That couldn't wait another day?
Well alright then, go find another fool
Yes I'm alright now – go on your way*

*Oh I know you don't mean no harm
It's just 'cause you're wanting something new
It's just a shame – by the time you find out I'm the one
I'll be in another's arms
But that's alright – sometimes we lose to learn
Yes I'm alright now – go on your way*

*I remember the night we met
It was raining – we were wet but warm
Walking through the streets – raindrops on our feet
Singing lah de de dah, la da dum de de dah de dah*

*Well I'm alright now – I think I'll make it through
Yes I'm alright now – go on your way
I remember the night we met
It was raining – we were wet but warm
Walking through the streets – raindrops on our feet
Singing lah de de dah, la da dum de de dah de dah*

*What's that you say?
I didn't hear - my mind was off
Thinking of a rainy day
Well, so adieu
Think of me when it's raining and you're feeling blue
'Cause I'm alright now – I think I'll make it through
Yes I'm alright now – go on your way
Yes I'm alright now – go on your way*
