

Warm Lovin' Eyes

*I woke up grieving – I dreamt you're leaving
You and your warm lovin' eyes
I woke in sorrow – you said tomorrow
We'll have to say our goodbyes*

*I said what do you mean don't you know
You're the queen in my life
I know it's just a dream but sometimes things we dream come alive
So let me tell you how much I love you
You and your warm lovin' eyes*

*You're just the girl I need
When this hard life we lead gets me down
When you take me by the hand
Somehow I can understand the the Why and How
You are my moon glow – my feather pillow
You make my dreams come alive*

*You're just the girl I need
When this hard life we lead gets me down
When you take me by the hand
Somehow I can understand the How and When*

*And then I see you
Oh I can feel you
You and your warm lovin' eyes
Your warm lovin' eyes
Your warm lovin' eyes
Your warm lovin' eyes
I love you*
